

Old North State Detectorists
Minutes
July 25, 2009

9:00 am. Meeting called to order by President William Purkey. Code of Ethics read to members by Vice-President Ron Washburn.

New members and special guests welcomed by William Purkey and current members.

Minutes of last meeting approved as written by majority vote.

Treasury report by Ron Washburn. Currently $15.00 in account. $20.00 donation to club by Kelly Sham and $10.00 member donation. Total in account $45.00.

William Purkey discussed letters sent to Greensboro Police Chief Bellamy and Guilford County Sheriff Barnes offering the clubs assistance in recovery efforts for items of interest. Copies of letters were passed around to members.

Letter sent to Kelly Sham thanking him for $20.00 donation and allowing club members to assist in attempt to locate a lost ring.

New ad discussed for club at a cost of $35.00 for 30 days. Motion made and passed by majority vote to have ad placed. William Purkey will have ad placed in paper.

Floor given to special guest speakers Stewart Dunaway and Jeff Bright on the battle of Clapps Mill. Both gave lots of information on the battle and locations of interest to the club. Jeff Bright has offered to guide the club on a group hunt in October. William Purkey and Jeff Bright will set a date for the hunt. There will also be a supervised hunt for artifacts by the Alamance Battle-ground Staff in the near future to help map out areas of the Battlefield. I will contact the staff for more information.

Bring and Brag. Herb Griffis brought a nice civil war-era flag staff finial he found.

Discussion on group hunt after meeting. Five members will meet at the hiking trail they searched last month for a group hunt.

Special guests thanked for their time in coming to the club meeting and for their lecture on the Battle of Clapps Mill.

Meeting closed by motion and majority vote. Next meeting to be held at Golden Corral in Greensboro on August 29, 2009.

Respectfully Submitted,
Jeff Brown - Secretary
