

Old North State Detectorists
Minutes
August 29th 2009

9:30 am. Meeting opened by William Purkey, Club President. Code of Ethics read by Jerry Gilliam.

Welcoming of special guest and new members.
Minutes from last meeting approved by majority vote.

Treasurers report given by William Purkey. As of last meeting there was $10.00 in the club fund after payment for the newspaper ad. There was $45.00 collected today for a total of $55.00 in the club fund.

Discussion on the club logo and making business cards to hand out to the public. Jerry Gilliam volunteered to make the cards from card stock that can be purchased locally. We will need to reimburse him from club funds. Continuing newspaper ads will be discussed at the next meeting. There was also discussion on name tags for the upcoming Alamance Battleground event. Jeff Brown will look into making name tags. Discussion on T-shirts and/or vest with club logo on front and back, will be researched by Jim Spivey and reported on at a later date.

Special guest Josh Howard and Jeff Bright discussed upcoming club participation at the Alamance Battleground project. The club will assist the N.C. Office of Archives and History in re-mapping the Battlefield. This will be an ongoing 13 month project and we are honored to have been chosen to assist them. This will take place starting at 9.30 am on September 5th at the site. Only those current and new members will be allowed on the marked off site, all spectators will not be allowed on the marked areas. Other dates will be forwarded to us as they are made available. Jeff Bright will host a club hunt at a site in October, this will be an exciting hunt near an old mill site where a battle was fought during the Revolutionary War.

Our next meeting will be on September the 26th at the Golden Corral in Greensboro, NC. William Purkey will not be able to attend, Club V.P. Ron Washburn or Club Secretary Jeff Brown will conduct the meeting.

Bring and Brag. Jeff Brown displayed a nice civil war bullet and artifact collection.

10.30 am. Meeting closed by motion and majority vote.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeff Brown - Secretary
